COUNTRY Soviet Zone of Germany REPORT NO. 25X1 TOPIC ALT LOWERTITE AIRTICLE EVALUATION 25X1 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE OF CONTENT, 6 and 7 December 1949 DATE OF CONTENT, 6 and 7 December 1949 DATE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE PREPARED 26 January 1950 REFERENCES 25X1 PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE) RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY REMARKS RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY REMARKS RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY REPORT NO. 25X1 REPORT NO. 25X1 REMARKS REMARKS RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY REPORT NO. 25X1 REPORT NO. 25X1 REFURN TO CIA LIBRARY REPORT NO. 25X1 REPORT NO. 25X1 REFURN TO CIA LIBRARY REPORT NO. 25X1 REPORT NO. 25X1 REFURN TO CIA LIBRARY REPORT NO. 25X1 REPORT NO. 25X1 REFURN TO CIA LIBRARY REPORT NO. 25X1 REPORT NO. 25X1 REFURN TO CIA LIBRARY REPORT NO. 25X1 REPORT NO. 25X1 REFURN TO CIA LIBRARY REPORT NO. 25X1 REPORT NO. 25X1 REFURN TO CIA LIBRARY REPORT NO. 25X1 REPORT NO. 25X1 REFURN TO CIA LIBRARY REPORT NO. 25X1 REPORT NO. 25X1 REFURN TO CIA LIBRARY REPORT NO	Approved For Release 2004/07/08 GIA RDP82-00457R004400170007-5
EVALUATION 25X1 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE OF CONTENT 6 and 7 December 1549 DATE OF CONTENT 6 and 7 December 1549 Z5X1 DATE PREPARED 26 January 1950 REFERENCES 25X1 PAGES LENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYPE) REFURN TO CIA LIBRARY 25X1 There we slittle activity at the 6 T LOSSUE TO. (0.52/h SL) nirited due to bad weather. All hangars were closed. Some aircraft of undetermined type were parked on the northwest edge. There was no flying. 2/ According to a Gomman divilian employed at the field, as samy as 150 single-engine aircraft occasionally lended at the field. Some planes only took on fuel and rations for their crews. a. The present occupation was unknown. Three rail shipments of five jet flighters each had allegedly arrived. The aircraft union were assembled at the field, are san the state of the field and the little flower of the first and them lett. The last prop left about 25 house 1 and	CLASSIFICATION
DATE OF CONTENT 6 and 7 December 1949 DATE OF CONTENT 6 and 7 December 1949 DATE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE PREPARED 26 January 1950 REFERENCES 25X1 PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYPE) REMARKS REMARKS REMARKS REMARKS RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY 25X1 1. There we slittle activity at the A.T. LOWALE TH. (I. 52/5 &h) mirfield due to bad weather. All hangars were closed. Some aircruft of undetermined type were parked on the northwest edge. There was no Tlying. 2/ According to a German civitian employed at the field. Some planes only took on fuel and rations for their crees. a. The present occupation was unknown. Three rail shipments of five jet fighters each had allegedly arrived. The aircraft unich were assembled at the field, and exoc. Allegran their left. The last group left about 23 have been 1949. The jet planes had congituously suept back wings and, under the fuelage, an aperture to the ran from which a jet of fire emanated in them the engine was started. 25X1 25X1 The radar set with seven dipoles and the pertaining radio truck previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles 25X1 The officers' billets on Fr.v.Hein-Strasse, Flamment (M. 52/5 74), were evacuated and according to the aunicipal administration, the houses on Goothestrass were soon to be scapty. The dealings there would, lowery, not be released to the civilian population as now Soviet dependents were evacuated and according to the aunicipal administration, the houses on the released to the civilian population is now Soviet dependents were evacuated and according to the aunicipal administration, the houses on Goothestrass were soon to be eapty. The dealings there would, lowery, not be released to the civilian population as now Soviet dependents were evacuated and according to the aunicipal administration in the Soviet cone of Gemany are shipped to the AT LOWANG TW. airfield where jet aircraft of Gemany are shipped to the AT LOWANG TW. airfield where jet aircraft of Gemany are shipped to the COMMENT of airfield wher	COUNTRY Soviet Zone of Germany REPORT NO. 25X1
DATE OF CONTENT 6 and 7 December 1949 DATE OBTAINED 25X1 REFERENCES 25X1 PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY 25X1 1. There we little activity at the 1.T LOCALS Th. (1.52/8 84) adriled due to bad weather. All languars were closed. Some circular of undetermined type were parked on the northwest edge. There was no flying. 2/ According to a German civilian employed at the field, as many as 150 single-engine adversary cocasionally landed at the field. Some planes only took on fuel and rations for their crews. a. The precent occupation was unknown. Three rail shipments of five jet fighters each and allegedly arrived. The aircrait unich were assembled at the field, and so. a flights and then left. The last group left about 23 Hovestor 1949. The jet planes had conspicuously swept back wings and, under the fuelage, an aperture to the rear from which a jet of fire emanated when the engine was started. 25X1 3. The radar set with seven dipoles and the pertaining radio truck previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles but the observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles but the observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles but the civilian population as now Soviet Copondents were executed and according to the manicipal administration, the houses on Gootheatrasse were seen to be eaply. The dealings there would, nonever, not be released to the civilian population as now Soviet Copondents were expected. 25X1 25X1	TOPIC ALT LOENNETITE Airfield
DATE OF CONTENT 6 and 7 December 1949 DATE OBTAINED 25X1 REFERENCES 25X1 PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY 25X1 1. There we little activity at the 1.T LOCALS Th. (1.52/8 84) adriled due to bad weather. All languars were closed. Some circular of undetermined type were parked on the northwest edge. There was no flying. 2/ According to a German civilian employed at the field, as many as 150 single-engine adversary cocasionally landed at the field. Some planes only took on fuel and rations for their crews. a. The precent occupation was unknown. Three rail shipments of five jet fighters each and allegedly arrived. The aircrait unich were assembled at the field, and so. a flights and then left. The last group left about 23 Hovestor 1949. The jet planes had conspicuously swept back wings and, under the fuelage, an aperture to the rear from which a jet of fire emanated when the engine was started. 25X1 3. The radar set with seven dipoles and the pertaining radio truck previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles but the observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles but the observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles but the civilian population as now Soviet Copondents were executed and according to the manicipal administration, the houses on Gootheatrasse were seen to be eaply. The dealings there would, nonever, not be released to the civilian population as now Soviet Copondents were expected. 25X1 25X1
25X1 DATE PREPARED 26 January 1950 REFERENCES 25X1 PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY 25X1 1. There we slittle activity at the 1.T ideals Te. (1. 52/8 84) mirfled due to bad weather. All hengars were closed. Some circuit of undetermined type were parked on the northwest edge. There was no flying. 2/ According to a German civilian employed at the field, as many as 150 single-engine mirrart occasionally landed at the field, Some planes only took on fuel and rations for their creas. a. The present occupation was unknown. Three rail shipments of five jet fighters each and rations for their creas. a. The present occupation was unknown. Three rail shipments of five jet fighters each and talegedly arrived. The alternative mich were assembled at the field, and so so litghts and then left. The last group left about 23 Novebor 1949. The jet planes had conspicuously swept back wings and, under the fuselage, an aperture to the rear from which a jet of fire dwanted when the engine was started. 25X1 3. The radar set with seven dipoles and the pertaining radio truck previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles but the control of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles but seem of the control of the annicipal administration, the houses on Cochiestrases were soon to be capty. The deallings there would, however, not be released to the civilan population as now Soviet depondents were expected. 5X1	9
REFERENCES 25X1 PAGES 1. ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY 25X1 1. There we slittle activity at the 1. T. LOCALD TT. (1. 52/h 84) nirfield due to bad weather. All hangars were closed. Scae circruit of undetermined type were parked on the northwest edge. There was no flying. 2/ According to a German civilian employed at the field, as many as 150 single-engine aircraft occasionally landed at the field. Some planes only took on fuel and rations for their crews. a. The precent occupation was unknown. Three rail shipments of five jet fighters each ind allegedly arrived. The aircraft which were assembled at the field, ander so. flights and then left. The last group left about 23 Newebor 1947. The jet planes had conspicuously swept back whige and, under the fuelage, an aperture to the rear from which a jet of fire emanated when the engine was started. 25X1 3. The radar set with seven dipoles and the pertaining radio truck previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor whiches were evacuated and according to the municipal administration, the houses on Goothestranes were soon to be empty. The decilings there would, nonever, not be released to the civilian population as new Soviet dependents were expected. 25X1	DATE OF CONTENT. 6 and 7 December 1949
PAGES 1. ENCLOSURES (NO. 2 TYPE) RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY 25X1 1. There ws little activity at the 1.T LOGARD Th. (E. 52/L SL) airfield due to bad weather. All hangers were closed. Some aircruft of undetermined type were parked on the northwest edge. There was no flying. 2/ According to a German civilian employed at the field, as many as 150 single-engine aircraft occasionally landed at the field. Some planes only took on fuel and rations for their crews. 2. The present occupation was unknown. Three rail shipments of five jet fighters each had allegedly arrived. The aircraft which were assembled at the field, ande so.e flights and then left. The last group left about 23 hovesbor 1949. The stephanes had conspicuously sweet back wings and, under the fuelage, an aperture to the rear from which a jet of fire emanated when the engine was estarted. 25X1 3. The radar set with seven dipoles and the pertaining radio truck previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles 25X1 4. The officers' billets on fr.v.Hein-Strasse, FALKENBERK (N 52/E 74), were evacuated and according to the municipal administration, the houses on Goethestrasse were soon to be empty. The decilings there would, nowever, not be released to the civilian population as new Soviet depondents were expected. 25X1	DATE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE PREPARED 26 January 1950
25X1 1. There we slittle activity at the A.T. LOCALISTIM. (1: 52/h. 8h.) atrifield due to bad weather. All hangers were closed. Some sirer. It of undstermined type were parked on the northwest edge. There was no flying. 2/ According to a German civilian employed at the field, as many as 150 angle-engine aircraft occasionally landed at the field. Some planes only took on fuel and rations for their crews. 2. The present occupation was unknown. Three real shipments of five jet fighters each had allegedly arrived. The sireraft unich were assembled at the field, nade so.e Hights and then left. The last group left about 23 havenber 1949. The jet planes had conspicuously swept back wings and, under the fusalage, an aperture to the rear from which a jet of fire emanated when the engine was started. 25X1 3. The radar set with seven dipoles and the pertaining radio truck previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles us, were seen. 25X1 4. The officers' billets on fr.y.Hein-Strasse, FALKANEBERK (N 52/E 74), were evacuated and according to the municipal administration, the houses on Coethestrasse were seen to be empty. The dwellings there would, nowever, not be relapsed to the civillan population as now Soviet dependents were expected. 25X1 comment: 25X1 a. It is noteworthy that hebout 20 jet aircraft were parked in a strictly gurded hangar. It is considered possible that all disassembled jet aircraft when arrive by rail for distribution in the Soviet cone of Genmany are shipsed to the ALT LOKANETIZ airfield where they are assembled and flown are shipsed to the ALT LOKANETIZ airfield where they are assembled and flown were possibly destined for the GROSSHIRIT is airfield where jet shireraft of the swept back type are now stationed, shipments from LIGHTLY via COTTES to Falkant Back were also observed.  b. A Righter regiment is assumed to be stationed in ALT LOWINGTIZ. 25X1	REFERENCES 25X1
25X1 1. There ws little activity at the A.T. LOCALETTA. (2.52/8.8L) mirfield due to bad weather. All hangers were closed. Some aircruit of undetermined type were parked on the northwest edge. There was no flying. 2/ According to a Genman civilian employed at the field, as many as 150 single-engine aircruit occasionally landed at the field. Some planes only took on fuel and rations for their crews. a. The present occupation was unknown. Three rall shipments of five jet fighters each had allegedly arrived. The aircruit unich were assembled at the field, made so.e flights and then left. The last group left about 23 havebor 1949. The jet planes had complicuously scept back wings and, under the fuselage, an aperture to the rear from which a jet of fire emanated when the engine was started. 25X1 3. The radar set with seven dipoles and the pertaining radio truck previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles were seen. 25X1 4. The officers' billets on Fr.v.Hein-Strass, Fillemetra (H. 52/E 7A), were evacuated and according to the municipal administration, the houses on Goothestrass were soon to be capty. The dwellings there would, nowever, not be released to the civilian population as new Soviet dependents were expected. 25X1	PAGES 1_ ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
to bad weather. All hangers were closed. Some aircraft of undetermined type were parked on the northwest edge. There was no flying. 2/ According to a German civilian employed at the field, as many as 150 single-engine aircraft occasionally landed at the field. Some planes only took on fuel and rations for their crews. a. The present occupation was unknown. Three rail shipments of five jet fighters each had allegedly arrived. The aircraft which were assembled at the field, made some flights and then left. The last group left about 23 hovember 1949. The jet planes had conspicuously swept back wings and, under the fueslage, an aperture to the rear from which a jet of fire emanated when the engine was started. 25X1 3. The radar set with seven dipoles and the pertaining radio truck previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles bus, were seen. 25X1 4. The officers' billets on Fr.v.Hein-Strasse, FALKENBERG (N 52/E 74), were evacuated and according to the municipal administration, the houses on Cocthestrasse were soon to be enpty. The dwellings there would, nowever, not be released to the civilian population as new Soviet dependents were expected. 25X1 Comment: 25X1 k. It is noteworthy that bounded in a strictly gurded hangen. It is considered possible that all disassembled jet aircraft which arrive by rail for distribution in the Soviet zone of Germany are shipped to the ALT LONNIETTZ airfield where they are assembled and flown to their destination. The Jet planes which took off on 22 November 1945 were possibly destined for the GROSSAMIATA airfield where jet aircraft of the such back type are now stationed, shipments from LIGENITA via COTINES to FALKEN-BERG were also observed.  b. A fighter regiment is hereby regraded to be stationed in ALT LONNIETTZ. CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the Director of Cooked to 1978 from the Back type are now stationed, shipments from LIGENITA via COTINES to FALKEN-BERG were also observed.  b. A fighter regiment is hereby regraded to the sta	REMARKSRETURN TO CIA LIBRARY
to bad weather. All hangers were closed. Some aircraft of undetermined type were parked on the northwest edge. There was no flying. 2/ According to a German civilian employed at the field, as many as 150 single-engine aircraft occasionally landed at the field. Some planes only took on fuel and rations for their crews. a. The present occupation was unknown. Three rail shipments of five jet fighters each had allegedly arrived. The aircraft which were assembled at the field, made some flights and then left. The last group left about 23 hovember 1949. The jet planes had conspicuously swept back wings and, under the fueslage, an aperture to the rear from which a jet of fire emanated when the engine was started. 25X1 3. The radar set with seven dipoles and the pertaining radio truck previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles bus, were seen. 25X1 4. The officers' billets on Fr.v.Hein-Strasse, FALKENBERG (N 52/E 74), were evacuated and according to the municipal administration, the houses on Cocthestrasse were soon to be enpty. The dwellings there would, nowever, not be released to the civilian population as new Soviet dependents were expected. 25X1 Comment: 25X1 k. It is noteworthy that bounded in a strictly gurded hangen. It is considered possible that all disassembled jet aircraft which arrive by rail for distribution in the Soviet zone of Germany are shipped to the ALT LONNIETTZ airfield where they are assembled and flown to their destination. The Jet planes which took off on 22 November 1945 were possibly destined for the GROSSAMIATA airfield where jet aircraft of the such back type are now stationed, shipments from LIGENITA via COTINES to FALKEN-BERG were also observed.  b. A fighter regiment is hereby regraded to be stationed in ALT LONNIETTZ. CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the Director of Cooked to 1978 from the Back type are now stationed, shipments from LIGENITA via COTINES to FALKEN-BERG were also observed.  b. A fighter regiment is hereby regraded to the sta
to bad weather. All hangers were closed. Some aircruit of undetermined type were parked on the northwest edge. There was no flying. 2/ According to a German civilian employed at the field, as many as 150 single-engine aircrait occasionally landed at the field. Some planes only took on fuel and rations for their crews. a. The present occupation was unknown. Three rail shipments of five jet fighters each had allegedly arrived. The aircraft unich were assembled at the field, made so e flights and then left. The last group left about 23 November 1949. The jet planes had conspicuously swept back wings and, under the fuellage, an aperture to the rear from which a jet of fire emanated when the engine was started. 25X1 3. The radar set with seven dipoles and the pertaining radio truck previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles bus, were seen. 25X1 4. The officers' billets on Fr.v.Hein-Strasse, FALKENBERG (N 52/E 74), were evacuated and according to the municipal administration, the houses on Cocthestrasse were soon to be empty. The dwellings there would, nowever, not be released to the civilian population as new Soviet dependents were expected. 25X1 Comment: a. It is notoworthy that house for distribution in the Soviet cop Germany are shipped to the ALT LONGING. The airfield where they are assembled get aircraft which arrive by rail for distribution in the Soviet cop of Germany are shipped to the ALT LONGING. The airfield where they are assembled and flown to their destination. The officers had believed and finding were also observed.  b. A fighter regiment is hereby regrated in the Director of Corther to Cother 1978 from the Director of Cother 1978 from the Destalled of the Director of Cother 1978 from the Director
to bad weather. All hangers were closed. Some aircruit of undetermined type were parked on the northwest edge. There was no flying. 2/ According to a German civilian employed at the field, as many as 150 single-engine aircrait occasionally landed at the field. Some planes only took on fuel and rations for their crews. a. The present occupation was unknown. Three rail shipments of five jet fighters each had allegedly arrived. The aircraft unich were assembled at the field, made so e flights and then left. The last group left about 23 November 1949. The jet planes had conspicuously swept back wings and, under the fuellage, an aperture to the rear from which a jet of fire emanated when the engine was started. 25X1 3. The radar set with seven dipoles and the pertaining radio truck previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles bus, were seen. 25X1 4. The officers' billets on Fr.v.Hein-Strasse, FALKENBERG (N 52/E 74), were evacuated and according to the municipal administration, the houses on Cocthestrasse were soon to be empty. The dwellings there would, nowever, not be released to the civilian population as new Soviet dependents were expected. 25X1 Comment: a. It is notoworthy that house for distribution in the Soviet cop Germany are shipped to the ALT LONGING. The airfield where they are assembled get aircraft which arrive by rail for distribution in the Soviet cop of Germany are shipped to the ALT LONGING. The airfield where they are assembled and flown to their destination. The officers had believed and finding were also observed.  b. A fighter regiment is hereby regrated in the Director of Corther to Cother 1978 from the Director of Cother 1978 from the Destalled of the Director of Cother 1978 from the Director
to bad weather. All hangers were closed. Some aircruit of undetermined type were parked on the northwest edge. There was no flying. 2/ According to a German civilian employed at the field, as many as 150 single-engine aircraft occasionally landed at the field. Some planes only took on fuel and rations for their crews. a. The present occupation was unknown. Three rail shipments of five jet fighters each had allegedly arrived. The aircraft which were assembled at the field, made some flights and then left. The last group left about 23 November 1949. The jet planes had conspicuously swept back wings and, under the fueslage, an aperture to the rear from which a jet of fire emanated when the engine was started. 25X1 3. The radar set with seven dipoles and the pertaining radio truck previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles bus, were seen. 25X1 4. The officers' billets on Fr.v.Hein-Strasse, FALKENBERG (N. 52/E 74), were evacuated and according to the municipal administration, the houses on Cocthestrasse were soon to be enpty. The dwellings there would, however, not be released to the civilian population as new Soviet dependents were expected. 25X1 Comment: a. It is noteworthy that house of Germany are shipped to the ALT LONGING ITZ airfield where they are assembled get aircraft which arrive by rail for distribution in the Soviet zone of Germany are shipped to the ALT LONGING ITZ airfield where they are assembled and flown to their destination. The Jet planes which took off on 22 November 1945 were possibly destined for the GROSSAMIAN airfield. In connection with the occupation of the GROSSAMIAN airfield where jet aircraft of the swept back type are now stationed, shipments from LIGGNITZ via COTHOS to FALKAN-BERG were also observed.  b. A fighter regiment is hereby regrated in the Director of Cother 1978 from the CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the Director of Cother 1978 from the Cother 1978 to beliasified
to bad weather. All hangers were closed. Some aircruit of undetermined type were parked on the northwest edge. There was no flying. 2/ According to a German civilian employed at the field, as many as 150 single-engine aircraft occasionally landed at the field. Some planes only took on fuel and rations for their crews. a. The present occupation was unknown. Three rail shipments of five jet fighters each had allegedly arrived. The aircraft which were assembled at the field, made some flights and then left. The last group left about 23 November 1949. The jet planes had conspicuously swept back wings and, under the fueslage, an aperture to the rear from which a jet of fire emanated when the engine was started. 25X1 3. The radar set with seven dipoles and the pertaining radio truck previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles bus, were seen. 25X1 4. The officers' billets on Fr.v.Hein-Strasse, FALKENBERG (N. 52/E 74), were evacuated and according to the municipal administration, the houses on Cocthestrasse were soon to be enpty. The dwellings there would, however, not be released to the civilian population as new Soviet dependents were expected. 25X1 Comment: a. It is noteworthy that house of Germany are shipped to the ALT LONGING ITZ airfield where they are assembled get aircraft which arrive by rail for distribution in the Soviet zone of Germany are shipped to the ALT LONGING ITZ airfield where they are assembled and flown to their destination. The Jet planes which took off on 22 November 1945 were possibly destined for the GROSSAMIAN airfield. In connection with the occupation of the GROSSAMIAN airfield where jet aircraft of the swept back type are now stationed, shipments from LIGGNITZ via COTHOS to FALKAN-BERG were also observed.  b. A fighter regiment is hereby regrated in the Director of Cother 1978 from the CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the Director of Cother 1978 from the Cother 1978 to beliasified
2/ According to a German civilian employed at the field, as many as 150 single-engine aircraft occasionally landed at the field. Some planes only took on fuel and rations for their crews. a. The present occupation was unknown. Three rail shipments of five jet fighters each had allegedly arrived. The aircraft which were assembled at the field, made so.e flights and then left. The last group left about 23 November 1949. The jet planes had conspicuously swept back wings and, under the fuselage, an aperture to the rear from which a jet of fire emanated when the engine was started. 25X1 3. The radar set with seven dipoles and the pertaining radio truck previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles bus, were seen. 25X1 4. The officers' billets on Fr.v.Hein-Strasse, FALMONEERG (N 52/E 74), were evacuated and according to the municipal administration, the houses on Gothestrasse were soon to be empty. The dwellings there would, however, not be released to the civilian population as new Soviet dependents were expected. 25X1	to bad weather. All hangars were closed. Some aircraft of undetermined fighters each had allegedly arrived. The aircraft which were assembled at the field, made so e flights and then left. The last group left about 23 November 1949. The jet planes had conspicuously swept back wings and, under the fuselage, an aperture to the rear from which a jet of fire emanated when the engine was started. 25X1 3. The radar set with seven dipoles and the pertaining radio truck previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles bus, were seen. 25X1 4. The officers' billets on Fr.v.Hein-Strasse, FALKUNBERG (N 52/E 7k), were evacuated and according to the municipal administration, the houses on Goethestrasse were soon to be empty. The dwellings there would, however, not be released to the civilian population as new Soviet dependents were expected. 25X1	single-engine aircraft occasionally landed at the field. Some planes only previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor vehicles bus, were seen. 25X1 4. The officers' billets on Fr.v.Hein-Strasse, FALKENBERG (N 52/E 74), were evacuated and according to the municipal administration, the houses on Goethestrasse were soon to be empty. The dwellings there would, nowever, not be released to the civilian population as new Soviet dependents were expected. 25X1 Comment: a. It is noteworthy that hours are parked in a strictly guarded hangar. It is considered possible that all disassembled jet aircraft which arrive by rail for distribution in the Soviet Zone of Germany are shipped to the ALT LONGINGTITZ airfield where they are assembled and flown to their destination. The jet planes which took off on 22 November 1949 were possibly destined for the GROSSEMHAIN airfield where jet aircraft or the swept back type are now stationed, shipments from LIEGRITZ via COTTEGS to FALKENBERG were also observed.  b. A Mighter regiment is assumed to be stationed in ALT LOENNETITZ. CLASSIFICATION This document is hereby regraded to be placed in a prediction of the GROSSEMHAIN airfield where jet aircraft or the swept back type are now stationed, shipments from LIEGRITZ via COTTEGS to FALKENBERG were also observed.  b. A Mighter regiment is accordance with the December No. The previous periods in the December No. Decembe	fighters each had allegedly arrived. The aircraft which were assembled at the field, made some flights and then left. The last group left about 23 November 1949. The jet planes had conspicuously swept back wings and, under the fuselage, an aperture to the rear from which a jet of fire emana-
25X1 4. The officers' billets on Fr.v. Hein-Strasse, FALKENBERG (N 52/E 74), were evacuated and according to the municipal administration, the houses on Goethestrasse were soon to be empty. The dwellings there would, however, not be released to the civilian population as new Soviet dependents were expected. 25X1	previously observed north of the field was no longer there. The motor evacuated and according to the municipal administration, the houses on Goethestrasse were soon to be empty. The dwellings there would, however, not be released to the civilian population as new Soviet dependents were expected. 25X1	25.74
25X1 a. It is noteworthy that shout 20 jet aircraft	evacuated and according to the municipal administration, the houses on Goethestrasse were soon to be empty. The dwellings there would, however, not be released to the civilian population as new Soviet dependents were
Shout 20 jet aircraft were parked in a strictly guarded hangar. It is considered possible that all disassembled jet aircraft which arrive by rail for distribution in the Soviet Zone of Germany are shipped to the ALT LOWNETTZ airfield where they are assembled and flown to their destination. The jet planes which took off on 23 November 1949 were possibly destined for the GROSSENHAIN airfield. In connection with the occupation of the GROSSENHAIN airfield where jet aircraft of the swept back type are now stationed, shipments from LIEGNITZ via COTTBUS to FALKEN-BERG were also observed.  b. A fighter regiment is assumed to be stationed in ALT LOWNNETIZ. Document No. CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1978 from the Document No.	25X1 Comment:
craft which arrive by rail for distribution in the Soviet Zone of Germany are shipped to the ALT LOWNNETTZ airfield where they are assembled and flown to their destination. The jet planes which took off on 23 November 1949 were possibly destined for the GROSSENDAIN airfield. In connection with the occupation of the GROSSENDAIN airfield where jet aircraft of the swept back type are now stationed, shipments from LIEGNITZ via COTTBUS to FALKEN-BERG were also observed.  b. A fighter regiment is assumed to be stationed in ALT LOWNNETIZ. CHASSIFICATION This decument is hereby regraded to the stationed in ALT LOWNNETIZ. Document No. No Charge In Class. Deciment No. Deciment No.	spout 20 jet aircraft were parked in a strictly to their destination. The jet planes which took off on 23 November 1949 were possibly destined for the GROSSENHAIN airfield. In connection with the occupation of the GROSSENHAIN airfield where jet aircraft of the swept back type are now stationed, shipments from LIEGNITZ via COTTBUS to FALKEN- BERG were also observed.  b. A fighter regiment is assumed to be stationed in ALT LOENNEWITZ. CHASSIFICATION This document is hereby regraded to the CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1978 from the Declaration Dec	25X1 craft which arrive by rail for distribution in the Soviet Zone of Germany were possibly destined for the GROSSENHAIN airfield. In connection with the occupation of the GROSSENHAIN airfield where jet aircraft of the swept back type are now stationed, shipments from LIEGNITZ via COTTBUS to FALKEN-BERG were also observed.  b. A fighter regiment is assumed to be stationed in ALT LOWNNEWITZ. CHASSIFICATION This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1978 from the Declaration Declara	25X1 to their destination. The jet planes which took off on 23 Rovember 1949
b. A fighter regiment is assumed to be stationed in ALT LOGNNE, ITZ. CI ASSIFICATION This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of 16 October 1978 from the Declaration of the letter of 18 October 1978 from the letter 1978 from the lett	were possibly destined for the GROSSENDAIN airfield. In connection with the occupation of the GROSSENHAIN airfield where jet aircraft of the swept back type are now stationed, shipments from LIEGNITZ via COTTBUS to FALKAR-
This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of 6 October 1978 from the	b. A fighter regiment is assumed to be stationed in ALT LOWNNEWITZ.
This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of 0.0 October 1978 from the Director of 0.0 October 1978 from the Director of 0.0 October 1978 from the Declaration of 0.0 October 1978 from the October
Director of 16 October 1978 from the	This document No. 607
	Director of 16 October 1978 from the